Company Policy: Inter-Department Communication

Objective:

To maintain streamlined communication, avoid disruption of work processes, and ensure clear channels of responsibility by preventing unauthorized communication between departments.

✅ 1. Scope of the Policy

This policy applies to all employees of SHNOOR INTERNATIONAL LLC working in any department, division, or section.

🚫 2. Prohibited Activities

- Employees are strictly prohibited from directly contacting or seeking information from members of other departments without proper authorization.
- Unauthorized inter-departmental meetings, emails, calls, or any form of direct communication are not allowed.
- Avoid personal or informal communication related to work with colleagues in other departments during official hours.

✅ 3. Authorized Communication Protocol

- All official inter-department communication must be routed through the respective Department Heads or designated Supervisors.
- If an employee requires information, support, or action from another department, they must submit a formal request via:
  - An official email
  - Written memo to their Supervisor or Department Head

✅ 4. Consequences of Violation

- First violation: Verbal warning and documentation in personal file.
- Second violation: Written warning.

- Repeated violations or serious misconduct may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including suspension or termination.

✅ 5. Exceptions

- In emergency situations where immediate communication is necessary to prevent damage or ensure safety, employees may communicate directly, but must report the action immediately to their Supervisor.

- Cross-department projects or committees formed by management are exempted, and employees are allowed to communicate as per the project guidelines.

✅ 6. Responsibilities

- Employees are responsible for following this policy at all times.

- HR will oversee enforcement and handle violations & report to the management on priority for any such violations.

✅ 7. Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed every 12 months and updated as necessary to accommodate organizational needs.

🔖 Acknowledgement

All employees must sign an acknowledgment form confirming that they have read, understood, and agreed to follow these rules.

Sincerely,
SHNOOR International LLC